LONDON TRAFFIC.

Royal Commission's Report.

London, July 18.—The Royal Commission on London traffic reports that the rehousing of workpeople on their present site in London would be too costly, and therefore it is imperative to relieve overcrowding by taking the population in and out of the city in many directions at a rapid speed and at frequent intervals at cheap rates.

The commission recommends a great extension of tramways, with through communication between different systems; also an extension of railways within the central area. It also advises the establishment of a Central Traffic Board, with functions of an advisory and semi-official character, and the appointment of an advisory board of engineers.

Mainly as a scheme for ultimate realisation, the commission recommends, if it is financially possible, the construction of two main thoroughfares through London, one from west to east, and the other from north to south, each with four lines of tramways on the surface, and four lines of railways below the surface, the motive power to be electricity.

The probable cost of this latter scheme is put down at £24,000,000.

The commission is not unanimous in its report. The commission considers that even if the municipality finds the money for construction, it would be lost or to leave the tramways to a private company if the municipality desires a reasonable profit.

The Royal Commission on London Traffic was composed of many eminent men, and included members of Parliament, civil engineers of great repute, and prominent bankers. The length of its sittings, two years and six months, is evidence that all available proposals have been thoroughly sifted, and from the report, of which we give a summary above, it is gathered that a most comprehensive scheme has been drafted for relieving the overcrowded state of London, and bringing the workers, who will thus be able to remove to healthier surroundings, quickly and cheaply to their daily labour in the Empire's metropolis.

Both paragraphs of the Commission's terms of reference have been fulfilled, for it was appointed to inquire into the means of locomotion and transport in London, and to report (a) as to the measures it deems most effectual for the improvement of the same, by the development and interconnection of railways and tramways on or below the surface, by increasing the facilities for other forms of mechanical locomotion, by better provision for the organisation of vehicle and pedestrian traffic, or otherwise, and (b) as to the desirability of establishing some authority or tribunal to which all schemes of railway or tramway construction of a local character should be referred, and the powers which it should be desirable to confer on such a body.

MAIL STEAMER DEPARTURES.

The following table is a chronologically arranged list of mail steamer sailings to Europe, America, Canada, and Australia. Coast ports, Manila, and Japan are not given, for steamers are constantly sailing for those ports. All the American steamers call at Japan, and the majority of the Australian boats call at Manila, and, in addition to those vessels, special steamers run there. The departure of every steamer is subject to alteration. The P. & O. mails usually reach London in about 28 days, and the French and German in about 28 or 30 days.

ROYAL VISITORS.

AFTER triumphal tours in England and Europe Prince and Princess Arisugawa have reached Hongkong on their way to rejoin their kinsfolk and countrymen in Japan. Their visit to the old world at such a time as this was of dual importance. It served to awaken the Continent—if awakening were necessary—to the standing Japan has won in the family of nations, and it was instrumental in England in binding
the allies closer together in political ambition, and in cementing the friendship that has sprung up between the two peoples. The British nation was lavish in its entertainment of their royal guests. They freely displayed what they had to show, and even if the effects to make things picturesque fell short of perfect in the eyes of the visitors from the midst of the art and grace of the Land of the Rising Sun, it is certain that the Prince and Princess did not fail to appreciate the earnestness and sincerity of the intentions of their hosts.
And if any guide is desired as to the impression taken away from Home
by the Prince and Princess it is given in their farewell message: "From the King-in-the-Palace to the man in the street, nothing could exceed the kindness shown," they said. "That is what England really aimed at. Though at bottom the visit had nothing of political significance about it, still it assumed political importance, confirming as it did the surest foundation of a lasting alliance, and the harmonious unity of the people of the two nations. The task of our treaty-makers has been rendered much easier, and they can now approach with easy minds the renewal of our alliance with Japan upon a basis more valuable to both sides. Mutual goodwill was established firmly by the presence of the royal visitors, and, undoubtedly, success along that line means success
along all others. Genuine admiration between allies should transcend all feelings based upon union dictated by mere commercial or naval or military exigency, and that being so, both nations
should gain immensely by the wisely-arranged mission to England of the representatives of the Imperial House of Japan. Unfortunately Hongkong is unable to do them honour owing to their brief stay, but it is certain the people here endorse the expressions of kindly feeling given voice to in the homeland, and join in wishing the visitors long years in which to enjoy the fruits of union between the two island nations."

In connection with the bon-fires made in the streets during the last few days,
by Chinese celebrating the 'All Souls'
festival, about 100 men have been im-mured and are to appear before the court,
at the Magistracy, on Friday.

A hawker from Third Street was fined $1, at the Magistracy this morning, for offering a bribe to a Chinese constable. It appears that the defendant was arrested for refusing an obstruction and on the way to the station offered the constable 50 cents
to drink tea with him if he would let him go.
For the obstruction he was ordered to pay
an additional fine of $4.

THE FIFTH TEST MATCH.

THE fifth, and final, test match between eleven representing Australia and England was commenced at the Oval on Monday, and once again fortune has favoured the Home team with regard to the toss. Even though this match is not a decisive one, as far as the 'ashes'
are concerned, a great amount of interest is being taken in it. From our cablegram we learn that an enormous crowd, including H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, was present on the opening day. They were regaled with an interesting display of brilliant batting. Fry, Jackson and Hayward—a dashing trio—effectively punishing the Australian bowling. At the close of the day's play England had 381 runs for seven wickets, but only another 49 runs were added before the innings terminated. Even then, however, England's total was more than enough for Australia.
When the Australians commenced their first innings they lost two of their best men—Trumper and Hill—for practically nothing. With two wickets down for 123 at luncheon Australia's prospects were not of the brightest, but Duff, who has not been playing well so far, his previous best this season in test matches being 60, played a brilliant innings and rattled up 146 runs, beating Fry's total in the first innings by two. Though he gave two chances, his innings will go down as one of the best of the tour. Darling (57) and Kelly (42)
were the only other Australians to do well, but ere the innings was over an aggregate of 363 was attained. On the first innings, therefore, the Englishmen
led by 67 runs, and should the match
be played out the finish should be close.
In their second innings the English team
has lost one wicket for three runs.
The Oval pitch wears well, and ought to be in good condition for the second innings of the Australians. The Australian bowler Cotter, who has consistently failed to do anything worth mentioning up to the present, has come off at last. His seven wickets for 118 runs is a sterling performance, especially against the flower of English batting,
who this season are in splendid form.
Brearley again justifies his selection and proves his worth as a bowler. What will immortalise this test match is the fact that C. B. Fry—who can, with excellent reasons, lay claim to the title of the run-getter of the age—has at last scored a century in a test match.
Since 1899, not including the present
season, he has played in eight test matches, aggregating 192 runs (in 1902 he played in three matches for 5 runs, an average of 1.25). In view of his other magnificent performances, his non-success in test matches was a thing mar-velled at by many. Now that he has broken the ice we may expect to see him rattle up some of his characteristic scores, such as he does in first-class Home cricket. In seven seasons (1898–1904)
he has aggregated 10,458 runs, with an average per season of 2,351. R. Abel, in this day was even better, his average for seven consecutive seasons being 2,465, while Hayward averaged 2,340
per season from 1898 to 1904. Fry is well on his way for the coveted 2,000 runs this season, and it is quite likely that he will again reach the third thousand, as he did in 1901. His first twelve innings
this season realised the first thousand;
Duff's performance in this match is no less meritorious than Fry's; in fact, occurring at the stage it did, it was of even more value. As to the result of the match little can as yet be said. The probabilities are it will be declared a draw at the end of to-day's play.

The Kaiser's Joy.
When the German Emperor received
Prince von Bulow, the Imperial Chancellor,
about the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern,
with the report of the acceptance by France
of the proposal for a conference on the Morocco question, he ordered the crew to dress and man ship. The officers then paraded in full dress at the head of the ship's steps, where the Emperor led three cheers.

The French Submarine Disaster.
The French submarine "Escarot," which sank in the harbour of Algiers some time ago, has been raised. Eight of those who were imprisoned after the sinking, for 32 hours after the sinking, and the remaining five, who were in the fore part of the submarine, were drowned much earlier.

A Cotton Market Scandal.

President Roosevelt gave directions in July that Mr. Edwin Holmes, who was an associate statistician in the Department of Agriculture at Washington, but was dismissed recently on the grounds that he had juggled with Government cotton reports to suit the purposes of manipulators, and to communicated information to brokers
on the cotton market, shall be prosecuted on a criminal charge. The President stated that Mr. Holmes was a greater scandal than if he had stolen money belonging to the United States Government, as he used the Government to deceive outsiders
and make himself and other persons rich.

THE FIFTH TEST MATCH.

ENGLAND'S GOOD TOTAL.

Cotter bowls well.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)
London, August 15, 2.40 p.m.

With seven wickets down for 381 runs the Englishmen resumed their first innings at the Oval yesterday, but before another fifty runs had been added the innings was concluded, the total being 430.

The Australian fast bowler Cotter was the most successful trundler; he took seven wickets for 148 runs, Laver and Hopkins taking the remaining two between them.

Fry's splendid batting on Monday excited considerable enthusiasm. During his entire innings he did not give a single chance.

AUSTRALIA'S FIRST INNINGS.

Tramper and Hill fail to score well.

Tramper and Duff opened the Australians' first innings, but the partnership was soon dissolved, Tramper being dismissed for four runs.

Hill joined Duff, but after scoring eighteen runs, the former was beaten. The Australians were making a bad start, Duff alone being able to make any headway against the English bowling.

Noble joined Duff and the pair of New South Welshmen kept their wickets intact until luncheon, two wickets then being down for 123 runs, of which Duff had scored 82, not out, and Noble 12.

THE AFTERNOON'S PLAY.

Duff beats Fry's score.

London, August 15, 7 p.m.

After the adjournment Duff continued to bat brilliantly, playing the bowling with ease. The batsman looked like remaining, but Noble was beaten when he had made 25, and Armstrong went in, retiring after making 18.

Darling and Duff were then together and the former compiled 57 before getting out.

Duff carried his score to 146, before he was dismissed. He played an excellent innings, which was marred, however, by two chances.

As he left the field he received a tremendous amount of applause. A useful 42 by Kelly made a valuable addition to the Australians' total, and the innings closed for 363 runs, being 67 runs in arrears.

Bready was again the most successful of England's bowlers, taking five wickets; first took three.

During the innings Lilley was injured and A. O. Jones was allowed to take his place at the wickets.

ENGLAND'S SECOND INNINGS.

One wicket for three runs.

The English eleven commenced their second innings with only a few minutes in which to play, but before time was called one wicket was down for three runs, Arnold having made a 'duck.'

CIVIL WAR AT WEICHOW.

Fighting to the death.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Canton, August 16.

It is reported here that there is what practically amounts to a civil war in the district of Weichow. The combatants have gathered large numbers of followers, and one party has hoisted a red flag and the other a black flag, and they are fighting against each other with modern weapons and fighting to the death. Not only so but daring robbery and piracy are a part of the programme of the marauders, and one of the steam launches that ply from Swatow was held up by them and looted of all that it carried of any value.

As everybody knows, this part of Kwangtung is composed of very turbulent elements and some three years ago there was a good deal of trouble which had to be suppressed by the imperial soldiers. Probably this outbreak, too, will have to be crushed by the same method, for when these bandits become accustomed to fighting, they prefer this mode of getting a living, to working in the sticky paddy fields, up to their knees in mud, and being trodden by the burning sun.

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Canton, August 15th.

THE RAPID EXTENSION OF JAPANESE INFLUENCE over the minds of the Chinese is seen locally in the preferences of the Viceroy. It is reported, that not only have Japanese doctors been secured to take over the medical branch of instruction, but Japanese are to be employed, even more generally than at present, in order to drill the army. The German system is condemned, and that of Japan is to be adopted in its place. The report affirms that first of all his body guard is to be placed under Japanese drill, and then afterwards it is to be extended to the system of instruction and drill to all the soldiers throughout the province.

THE RAILWAY. Just exactly what this projected railway is, and what its terminus, we have not yet seen stated. But the Canton Times reports that the needed money is guaranteed, and now things only wait to be sanctioned by the high officials, and arranged to the satisfaction of all those interested. The money has of course come, to a great extent, from the purses of those who have returned from foreign countries. A line from Nanning to Chung Shing would cost comparatively little to build, but would be a great convenience, for the river is almost entirely silted up.

THE CIRCUS.

Another large audience filled Messrs. FitzGerald Bros' spacious tent last evening, when the second performance of the present season was given. The programme differed slightly from that submitted on the opening night and the alterations were improvement, even on the previous high class entertainment. The performers were naturally more at home and any little shortcomings noticed on the first night was completely overcome.

The sensational feats accomplished by the Herbert Family of aerial gymnasts were some of the most deservedly popular items, their performance on the flying trapeze being thrilling, graceful, and clever. Great admiration was expressed for the cleverly trained dog, introduced by Mello, Millo, Dagnar, and in addition to 'Foss' and 'Stumpy' going through their usual tricks a third member, 'Rags', earned great applause by his sagacity, especially when hiding in an upturned barrel. A small canine labelled 'Sandow' earned roars of laughter by an attractive turn.

In his jockey act Will Henderson was much better off than he was on the previous night, the difficult feat in which he failed on Monday night, that of jumping on his mount when going round the ring at full gallop, and remaining in a standing position. Dr. Gordon's feats of strength astonished all who had not previously seen him. His extraordinary weight-lifting exhibition, his announcement that he would pull against four horses in the open street, not people wondering as to what could really be the capacity of his strength.

The horses of the circus are all splendidly trained, as also are the wild beasts, and a fine contrast is afforded in the pony and elephant act.

Of the numerous other turns that go to make up a lengthy and excellent programme it can with justice be said that each in itself makes the circus worth a visit. The ballerinas deserve a special word of praise for their charming rendering of the 'Bismarck Grenadiers,' and Allan Kerr for his clever trick cycling.

The first matinee was given this afternoon, and was well patronised by girls as well as juveniles, who enjoyed the performance to the utmost. To-night and every evening until further notice the performance commences at 9.15, changes of programme being frequently introduced.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS ARISUGAWA.

Entertained by the Governor.

By the German mail steamer 'Prousen,' which arrived in port this morning, on the voyage northward, there arrived in the Colony their Imperial Highnesses Prince and Princess Arisugawa, who are on their return to Japan after their visit to England and Germany.

Early this morning Mr. Noma (Councillor General for Japan) went off to the steamer to welcome the Imperial visit, and arranged that they should accept His Excellency the Governor's invitation to dinner at Government House. In accordance with this invitation His Excellency despatched Captain Leslie, A.D.C., to pay his respects and escort the visitors to Government House.

The Prince and Princess and their party, accompanied by Mr. Noma, the Japanese Consul, landed at Blake Pier at about twenty minutes past 1 o'clock.

On the Imperial party leaving the ship a royal salute was fired from H.M.S. 'Tamar,' and at Blake Pier special arrangements had been made for their reception.

A guard of honour of about 200 men selected from the Royal West Kent Regiment was drawn up in front of the wharf, carrying the regimental standard and headed by their excellent band. Colonel Darling (acting G. O. C.) was in charge, and attended by several other officers, awaited the Prince's coming. Amongst other gentlemen present to receive His Highness were the Hon. Mr. Scroombie Smith (Acting Colonial Secretary), Sir H. S. Berkeley (Attorney General), Sir C. P. Chater, and Hon. Mr. L. A. M. Johnston.

The party was lined by some hundreds of spectators, including many Europeans, and a force of police, under Chief Inspector Baker, was on duty keeping the street clear.

The Prince's party was seven in number, and on landing he and the Princess were introduced by Mr. Noma to Colonel Darling and then in turn to the other gentlemen.

The Prince wore a military uniform and looked a thorough soldier, while the Princess was charmingly gowned in a cream coloured dress.

The introductions over, the Prince proceeded to inspect the guard, the band meanwhile striking up the Japanese national anthem.

The party then took the chairs which had been sent for them from Government House, and on arrival at their destination were made welcome by His Excellency Sir Matthew Nathan, and entertained at dinner.

Owing to the fact that the mail steamer was to leave again this afternoon, the stay of the visitors in the Colony was of only a few hours' duration, and other arrangements that had been made for their entertainment had to be abandoned.

THE SUPERFLUOUS GIRLS OF CHINA.

Action of the Viceroy.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Canton, August 10.

How far the practice of infanticide prevails over the South of China remains a problem which cannot be stated in definite terms. That it does exist everybody knows. Apologists for China, like Professor Giles, would have us believe that the extent of the crime has often been exaggerated. I myself, in one of my river journeys, noticed four infants floating in the water, which, I hasten to observe, was the largest number seen on any one journey.

That infanticide obtains to a considerable extent, however, is proved beyond cavil, by the frequency with which humane gentlemen and mandarins issue appeals urging the people to desist therefrom. These are frequently met with and take for granted that the practice is general and indefensible. Recently H.E. the Viceroy issued an edict to the subordinate officials throughout the province, and ordered them to take what steps they are able to mitigate this evil, and to provide what protection possible for the unwelcome female guests.

It is hard to pass in consequence that a distinct move has been made, which may bear some fruit. The different branches of the Shintong—that is, roughly speaking, Benevolent Guilds—have taken the matter up, and are organising a scheme by which they can save at least some of the doomed infants. One of their number has been transformed into 'The Hall of Wide-reaching Mercy' and in this refuge the foundling infants are to be housed and cared for.

It would seem, however, that it is difficult to work out any scheme of salvation. A female infant is drowned before its presence is publicly known, and then it is too late to save it. Of course, if it were known that there was a home for superfluous female infants, and a simple and inexpensive method could be adopted by which they could be conveyed to the crèche, many would be saved.

The most effective method, however, seems to me to be the punishment of the heartless mothers, who, if it is likely, will then be deterred from perpetrating the outrage. What is wanted is that public opinion should condemn infanticide as wrong and not merely as evil. This feeling does not appear to exist except in the hearts of the few more humane, who are powerless to influence the masses—at least to any extent. We can well believe that the Viceroy is anxious to remove this barbarous custom, but the usefulness, and that therefore the help of many of the little helpless ones will be saved.

THE BOYCOTT.

Proclamation from Wuhu.

The N. O. Daily News translates the following proclamation received from Wuhu, and hopes the Chinese residents will carefully weigh the matter, and—now that they have gained the desired attention to their wants on the part of the American Government, Press, and people—follow the advice of the Waiwupu as stated in this proclamation, namely, quietly and patiently await the result of that Board's deliberation before proceeding further with a movement that has become so injurious to all concerned.

PROCLAMATION.

Chiao, wearing the broadest second grade red button, an expectant Tsotai of Angho province, and Chief Counsellor of the Wuhu Bureau of Commerce, issues the following proclamation for the information of all concerned:—

On the 13th of July I received a dispatch from His Excellency the Governor, stating that the Waiwupu, having received telegrams from Chinese merchants of various ports stating that they had inaugurated a boycott on American goods as a means of protesting against the unjust clauses of the New Navigation Treaty, and requesting the Waiwupu not to sign the new Treaty as it stood, the said Waiwupu had replied that the draft of the new Treaty had been drawn up by Minister Liang Ching in Washington, who sent the draft to the American Foreign Office, but that it had not yet been settled upon. Further, more, the U. S. Minister Rockwell, who had arrived in Peking, had in a conference with the Waiwupu regarding the new Treaty, spoken in a friendly and amiable manner, nor was there any indication of coercing the Government to sign the draft of the new Treaty as it stood. Moreover, the said U. S. Minister had also signified his willingness to telegraph to his Government to change for the better any of the objectionable clauses in the proposed new Treaty. It is, however, feared that the Chinese merchants in question may have acted in a moment of impulse, although it is recognised that the step they have taken is unanimously proposing the boycotting of American goods and manufactures either through the columns of the Press, or by Express, was inspired by just anger at the treatment of their fellow-countrymen entering the United States. There is cause for apprehension, however, that such characters may take the opportunity to create disturbances and influence the ignorant masses to break the peace. In view of this, therefore, the Waiwupu states that it is most important that steps be taken to prevent everyone from acting and guiding the result of the said Board's deliberations on the subject. His Excellency the Governor, having sent a reply by telegram to the Waiwupu, now instructs the Bureau of Commerce to issue this proclamation to inform all concerned that as the new Treaty is still being deliberated upon by the Waiwupu, and the making definite business decisions, all general merchants and traders are exhorted to wait patiently for the instruction of the Waiwupu and cast away all doubts and suspicions, and they are also further asked to exhort the labouring classes and common people to urge them to await the result of the Waiwupu's decision in a peaceful manner, and refrain from listening to the evil influences of the rowdy element, and thereby avoid creating disturbances which will only lead to their own detriment. Let all respectfully obey. An important proclamation.

31st year of Kuang Hsi, 28th day of the 6th moon (30th July, 1905).

Why?

The following two pertinent questions appeared in the course of a letter by a 'Boycotted American' to a Shanghai contemporary:—'Why have the Americans and local representatives of America firms not organised for the purpose of getting this boycott actified?'

They realise that for every month that this goes on, it will take a year to undo the mischief that is spreading like wildfire!

CONSULS CONFERENCE.

A meeting of the Consular Body was held at Shanghai on August 10 to consider the matter of boycotting trade generally in the continuance of the existing boycott situation. It is understood that it was decided to address the Diplomatic Body on the subject, which has now become a serious one, asking it to make representations to the Waiwupu.

ACTION IN YOKOHAMA.

On August 8 Chinese merchants in Yokohama held a meeting at the Chinese Hall, and adopted the following resolutions regarding future trade with the United States:—

- 1.—That the Chinese merchants in Yokohama unconditionally agree to cease buying and selling American produce and manufactures.
- 2.—That no goods be shipped in American bottoms.
- 3.—That business done with an American through the medium of a third party will be regarded in the same light as business done directly with an American.
- 4.—That no business be done with any American bank or insurance office.
- 5.—That the shipment of cargo to a port where only American ships trade be deferred.
- 6.—That violation of this agreement be followed by a fine.

A proposal to compel the Chinese in the service of American firms or private houses to leave will be considered later, as funds to support the men who would thus lose their livelihood are not yet organised.

BY WHARF AND WAVE.

To provide the necessary refrigerating space for the increasing trade with the East, the E. and A. Steamship Company had their steamer 'Eastern,' now in port fitted with an up-to-date plant whilst in Sydney. The cold storage space on the liner was increased to 500 tons measure, and the shipment of cargo to a port where only American ships trade be deferred.

The M. M. s.s. 'Touraine' is entering Hongkong at night recently touched ground and injured her propellers. The master did not find it out until he had left Hongkong for Saigon. The propellers were so damaged that the voyage was considerably delayed. The Saigon agents wired to Singapore whether the 'Touraine' could be repaired there. The answer was that no dock at Singapore was deep enough to hold her. The 'Touraine' at that time could not be docked at Saigon owing to the narrowness of the harbour. Taking up the available accommodation.

The Great Northern Steamship Company's s.s. 'Minnesota' made a fine passage from Yokohama to Sea last month. Leaving the lightship at Yokohama at 5 p.m. on July 8 (Yokohama apparent time) the 'Minnesota' arrived at Port Townsend at 10.31 p.m. on July 19, having taken 11 days 23 hours, mean time, to cover the distance. Her last daily run was 380 miles and her average speed for the voyage was 14.73 knots per hour. Her daily runs from July 9 were: Miles 272, 331, 340, 332, 336, 354, 357, 358, 380, 349, 346, 354 and 187; total distance 4229 miles.

WRESTLING AT SHANGHAI.

An Uraly Combat.

There has been some international wrestling and wrangling at Shanghai. An assertive Japanese wrestler appears to be the cause of the wrangling. On the 10th inst. a match was made between the Indian member of Sandow's troupe and a Japanese. It was arranged that pushing out of the ring (Japanese style) should not count.

The Japanese Washigatake, weighed about 220 lbs.; Mr. Harichand weighed only 140. Whatever the Japanese agreed to it was evident that he considered pushing out of the ring to be a fail, as three times running he charged his opponent and by sheer weight bore him out of the arena. The fourth time they engaged, a self-appointed Japanese referee rushed into the ring and started hitting the Indian with an instrument like a ringman's bat, while a Japanese wrestler attempted to pull Mr. Harichand away. After some vehement arguments with Mr. Jones (referee) the latter announced that the Japanese, by touching his opponent's hand on the floor had secured his first fall. The spectators were raving, and hissing, and groaning continued until the referee, Mr. Sandow, did the only thing possible under the circumstances: asked Mr. Harichand and his American pupil to give an exhibition of catch-as-catch-can wrestling. The spectators submitted to the inevitable and the Japanese 1 ft the arena amidst a storm of hisses and groans. The management did their best to settle things smoothly and the failure of the match on 7th was attributed to the obstinacy of the Japanese contestant.

After a somewhat disorderly scene, in the midst of which Mr. Harichand offered to wrestle any six of the Japanese at catch-as-catch-can, Mr. Sandow did the only thing possible under the circumstances: asked Mr. Harichand and his American pupil to give an exhibition of catch-as-catch-can wrestling. The spectators submitted to the inevitable and the Japanese 1 ft the arena amidst a storm of hisses and groans. The management did their best to settle things smoothly and the failure of the match on 7th was attributed to the obstinacy of the Japanese contestant.

THE SEASONABLE COMPLAINT.

ALMOST EVERYONE, AT THE END OF SUMMER, FEELS WILTED AND RUN DOWN. We wonder how we stood the heat of January and February so well, only to collapse when the weather is agreeably cooler. The reason is that the summer strain is just beginning to tell on us. We need to CLEAR THE SYSTEM OF POISONOUS WASTES, and to stimulate the Liver and Kidneys into action again. IT IS CRUCIAL AN APPOINTMENT we look for certainty of result, gentleness of action, and safety to the system. THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY THERAPION

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricard, Noth, Robert, Vignon, and others, combines all the elements to be sought in a medicine of the kind and surmounts everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1 is a remarkably short time, after a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, suppurating abscesses, etc., and is a most reliable remedy for the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, rashes and swelling of the lymphatic system, rheumatism, gout, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to use play security, arsenic, etc., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3 for nervous exhaustion, impaired vitality, debility, and all the distressing consequences of early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, etc. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION is sold by all Chemists and Storekeepers throughout the World. Price in England 1/6 & 1/3. In October, date which the three numbers are required, and observe above Trade Mark, which is a fac-simile of word "THERAPION" as it appears on British Government Stamp (the white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery. Sold by All Chemists.

REVIEW.

THE HEBREW JOURNAL. July 1905. W. H. Hains and Norgate.

The current number opens with a lucid article by Mr. C. G. Montefiore on the first three gospels as they present themselves to the Jewish mind. In this he narrows the ground by dealing only with the words attributed to Jesus and excluding from them all which relate to the person of Jesus.

After looking to correct mutual misconceptions he notes how the Gospels conflict with Rabbinic religion in the law of divine retribution, or tit for tat. The Synoptic teaches that 'merit lives from man to man, and not from man, O Lord, to thee.' The most important contrast noted is that 'Lowly, active service for the benefit of the humblest is an essential feature of the Synoptic religion.' 'He who would be great among you, let him be your servant.'

When Mr. G. M. Trevelyan answers his question 'Should agnosticism be miserable?' he vindicates his treatment of the subject. He affirms that pessimism was never more general than in the ages of Faith. This, he unfortunately illustrates by Calvin. But Calvin, who knew both his Gospel and his World, softened and developed that side of the Gospel which engrosses us to-day—the social side. Such action has never characterised the Pessimist. Nor will it do to credit this action to temperament; for in Calvin it was interwoven with doctrinal belief and moral means from beginning to end.

Mr. Meredith on Religion is sympathetically treated by Dr. Moffatt with a wealth of apt quotation. Meredith bows before nature, but that nature is radiant and vital—the creative controlling principle. Nature is neither dust and chance, nor do-as-you-please, but an upward process of evolution for humanity. He guards against the danger of sensuality and asceticism. He strongly emphasises prayer again and again. His idea of the shore beyond the river of Death is veiled with a mist of colored gleaming words. But led by him, men would find such clean pure and useful lives as by and by to launch out with the 'rapidity of the forward view.'

Mr. Hutton looks around for an answer to the question 'Is the Age of Faith returning?' He perceives protests against the arrogance of one-sidedness in the breast as to political principle, and the uneasiness on the scantiness of families. Ideals which men will not abandon but which they cannot approach, are coming into the clear. Science seemed about to deal the coup de grace to Faith, when her arm became heavy and anxiety spread over her face. The risk of ultra anti-matterialism and occultism are like bits of paper showing the way the wind is veering. Science has been sobered by her own subsequent discoveries. Idealists are chirpy just now. It is an immense relief for some people to know, on the authority of living leading thinkers, that one may believe in God, without being intellectually an ass. There is a newly-recovered confidence in life, in the generous intimations of a healthy temperament. We live and learn; not learn and live.

Another engaging article is on Oscar Wilde, which can scarcely be summarized. Mrs. Usher urges a sane plan for Reform in the teaching of the Christian Religion, in Public Schools. The nine front-rank articles, the five sustained discussions, the six signed reviews, together with the up-to-date bibliography comprise the two hundred pages of number 12. It is remarkable how the high average of the early numbers is maintained, even when no sensational flours are included.

CONSTIPATION.

To ensure a natural movement of the bowels, it is most important to take plenty of exercise every day. Many men and women don't do this, and they become more or less constipated, sometimes going two or three days without a passage from the bowels. This is a very serious thing, not only because constipation makes one feel ill, but because the prolonged presence of waste matter in the bowels strains the muscular walls, eventually paralyzing them, so that instruments have to be used to remove impurities.

Those who cannot get enough exercise, or whose work is sedentary, should use Doan's Dinner Pills, which are made from pure roots and herbs that act on the bowels, invigorating the muscular walls, and toning up the nerves, liver, stomach, and whole digestive organism. Doan's Dinner Pills soften the mass of clogging waste, preventing piles, and inflammation of the intestines; and they cure sluggish liver, indigestion, biliousness, headache, poor appetite, impoverished blood, and every symptom of liver, stomach, or bowel trouble.

Doan's Dinner Pills are 1/4 a box, or 6 boxes for 6/-. Of all Chemists and medicine-dealers, or direct from the proprietors, the Foster-McClellan Co., 8, Wells Street, Oxford Street, London, England, post free on receipt of price.

DOAN'S OINTMENT cures every form of itchy skin disease—Eczema, Ringworm, itching Piles, etc. The price of Doan's Ointment is 2/6 a pot, or 12/6 for 6 pots, and it is sold by all chemists, or may be had direct, post free on receipt of price, from the proprietors, the Foster-McClellan Co., 8, Wells Street, Oxford Street, London, England.

THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES.

Captain McLeod, who commands the contingent recently in England of the 7th Regiment of the National Guard of New York, stated to a press representative that his team 'had the time of their lives' while being the guests of the Queen's West-ministers.

'Most of the men,' he said, 'have been on this side before, but we never tire of your English life. To be sure, London is hot and busy, but we have made hosts of friends in town. The King has received us, and we cherish very highly this honour. Most of us are familiar with your institutions, and we feel that the closer the bond between us is made the better will it be.'

A shooting member of the team said: 'I am struck with the encouragement given to rifle shooting in England. You have more good shots to the acre than our country or any other country possesses. You seem to grow them in the hedges, and I take it this is due to the encouragement given by the public. You have the material and it is for you to make the most of it. In America we have no big prizes on your scale. If a man wins a ten pound event he considers it a whale of a prize. Your shooting is a strong point and is the one that I most admire among your institutions.'
